

For immediate release

The Press Room Second Anniversary

The Press Room is proud to introduce a new menu, wine list and a series of special activities to commemorate its second anniversary.

New menu & wine list

Amongst The Press Room's hearty signature offerings, the recent menu change boasts of new dishes and desserts created by executive chef David Tamlyn and head pastry chef Emma Renfrew. Highlights include Roquefort & bacon burger, daube de boeuf, crab linguine, leek & potato vichyssoise, roast leg of lamb, crepes flambée and more. Complementing the menu is an international wine list carrying over 100 wines with beyond 20 selections by glass and carafe alone.

Free-flowing wine every Monday in November

To thank patrons for their continuous support, The Press Room will be offering free-flowing wine from the 2006 vintage (synonym to its founding year) every Monday evening in November.

*Terms and conditions apply.

Kids' weekend brunch menu

Newly added to The Press Room's weekend brunch menu is a kids' section with every child's favorite foods such as homemade chicken nuggets, mini burger, sausage & beans and steak & chips all served with soda and ice cream. Available every Saturday, Sunday and public holiday 10am – 4pm.

The Press Room early bird special

Every Friday to Sunday, patrons dining from 6pm onwards and billing before 8pm gets 20% off the a la carte menu.

Premiere Issues Exhibition

The Press Room is proud to play host to Premiere Issues' inaugural exhibition. With an ultimate goal to provide a neat, respectful and insightful resource for magazine lovers and readers, Premiere Issues is a collection of first-issue art, culture and design-related magazines carefully curated by Hong Kong-based graphic designer Danielle Huthart.

More details to come.

About The Press Room

The Press Room is an all-day brasserie serving simple French-European fare. The philosophy is to serve simple food made from the finest ingredients, served in a friendly and relaxed atmosphere. Surrounded by antique shops and adjacent to the famed Man Mo Temple, the brasserie is located on the site once occupied by Hua Qiao Daily newspaper in the 1920s. The name - The Press Room - is particularly fitting and epitomizes the whole concept that pays homage to this historical site. Open daily for lunch and dinner, The Press Room offers weekend brunch and afternoon tea on Saturdays and Sundays. The restaurant also boasts a raw bar featuring an international selection of oysters and crustacean as well as a cellar carrying over 100 wines to complement your meal.

---

The Press Room
G/F, 108 Hollywood Road, Hong Kong.
Tel: +852 2525 3444

For media enquiries, please contact Pomona Li at pomona@prg.com.hk or +852 2527 4918

Easy facts

Outlet name: The Press Room

Address: 108 Hollywood Road, Central, Hong Kong

Tel: +852 2525 3444

Website: www.thepressroom.com.hk

Operating hours: Monday – Friday 12pm – 12am. Saturday and Sunday 10am – 12am.

Cuisine: French-European brasserie

Branding: Stanley Wong (aka Another mountainman)

Graphic design: Danielle Huthart of Whitespace

Interior design: Hugh Zimmern of Leigh and Orange